

Major Office	Profile	Programme/Area of Work	Duty Station	Assignment	Summary of Assignment
HQ	HQ/19/05	Neglected Tropical Diseases	Geneva, Switzerland	Technical Officer	Under the supervision of the Scientist, Neglected Zoonotic Diseases and the Scientist responsible for intestinal parasites (alternate supervisor), the Junior Professional Officer (JPO) will contribute to the scaling up of control activities for taeniasis/cysticercosis by summarizing the evidence that justify investment for taeniasis/cysticercosis control that include evaluation of global morbidity, evaluation of cost benefit of control activities and dissemination of programme tools &amp; mobile device technology; and by providing technical support to managers of control programmes in endemic countries including to develop standard operating procedures, manuals, guideline, mobile phone applications. The JPO will also regularly visit endemic countries where pilot control experiences are in place in order to understand the difficulties and the possible solutions. Supervisor: Scientist, Neglected Zoonotic Diseases
HQ	HQ/19/04	Reproductive Health and Research	Geneva, Switzerland	Technical Officer	Under the direct guidance of the HRP (the UNDP-UNFPA-UNICEF-WHO-World Bank Special Programme of Research, Development and Research Training in Human Reproduction) Communications Officer, the Technical Officer (TO), organizes compelling social media materials in support of the activities and outputs of the Department of Reproductive Health and Research (including the Special Programme of HRP). The Junior Professional Officer (JPO) will collaborate with staff, and in particular the communications teams, of related HQ Departments, (notably the Communications office of the Director-General), WHO Regional Office staff, and WHO country office staff to plan, develop and coordinate work on specific communications projects. Under the direction of the supervisor, the JPO will also liaise with staff of partner agencies, such as UNDP, UNFPA, UNICEF, UNAIDS and the World Bank, as well as with research institutions, non-governmental organizations, government and other stakeholders. The position calls for political sensitivity, as the agendas are complex and not always clearly aligned. Supervisor: Communications Officer