

DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT

Compendium of Vacancies for JPOs – 2023/2024

AFRICA (14)

1.1 JPO – Project Officer (Migration, Environment and Climate Change) – Bujumbura, Burundi

Support the design and the development of new projects on migration and related topics with a special emphasis on MECC, in close coordination with government authorities, international and regional institutions, and partner organizations in the public/private sector; Participate in identifying potential funding opportunities for MECC in close collaboration with IOM Burundi's Programme Development & Support Unit and the Regional Office for East and Horn of Africa; Contribute to the management and follow-up of ongoing and upcoming DRR and MECC projects; Support the design, setup and roll out of new data collection and research activities in accordance with global standards and methodologies specifically linking migration, environment and climate change; Upon identification of knowledge gaps in the HDPN and climate change nexus (quadruple nexus), proactively identify research requirements and assessment needs and develop action plans to address these gaps; Contribute to the development of policy, strategic and programmatic recommendations for the Country Office's planning purposes, including a MECC Country Office strategy; Contribute to the mainstreaming of MECC in existing programmatic areas of IOM including but not limited to emergency response, migrant protection, labour migration, border management, and health; Establish and maintain strong partnerships and liaison with government entities, UN agencies and other stakeholders in Burundi, including liaison related to the UNSDCF and related working groups; Assist the IOM Burundi Team in promoting MECC-related initiatives and ensuring donor visibility through drafting/reviewing press releases, newsletters, briefing notes, etc.