

6.10 JPO – ICT Officer (Innovation Hub) – Geneva, Switzerland

Provide support in setting up the Technology Innovation Portfolio including defining investment thesis, due diligence, investment criteria, sourcing process, portfolio funnel stage gates and KPIs aligned to maximize return on investment and impact; Contribute to the development and implementation of training to enable and support innovation across IOM. This will include, but not be limited to: Design Thinking, human-centred design, wire-framing etc. Note, training may be developed and provided in conjunction with an external partner; Develop and implement artefacts to facilitate innovation across IOM. This will include, but not be limited to: Business model canvas for impact, how to guide for MVPs, etc; Manage the process of sourcing, entry and exit of projects from the portfolio. Sourcing covers both external (non-IOM) and internal sources of innovation projects; Providing (and brokering) technical support for the projects within the portfolio, including frontier technologies, business models, product market fit, growth strategies, evidence building. This will include regularly meeting with portfolio projects and providing direct advice or technical assistance along with brokering support from other stakeholders within IOM or externally; Check that the Partnerships team in IOM have the necessary information to enable resource mobilization and partnership development for the portfolio in general and for specific projects in the portfolio; Support the Communications team in building and delivering a communications strategy that will support the aims of the portfolio and its constituent projects; Monitor, evaluate and report on innovation activities including fundraising outcomes.

6.11 JPO – Global Crisis Response Platform Support Officer – Geneva, Switzerland

Support coordination with Results-Based Management and Prima colleagues, as well as GCRP Focal Points, to ensure the alignment with institutional processes and relevance at regional and country levels; Provide support to improve the accuracy of people targeted figures, against which achievements can be measured; Act as the Focal Point with Information and Communications Technology units to develop and test fields to capture and publish achievements; Contribute to the development and implementation of awareness raising and capacity strengthening initiatives to support the development of coherent and accurate target figures and reporting on achievements; For Country Office in Panama City, provide remote and in person (through the duty travel) support to the Regional and Country Offices in the Americas in the coordination and drafting of Crisis Response Plans. This will include; Support the review of and contribution to the CRP selection process; Liaise with the GCRP focal points in relevant Country Offices to coordinate the development of single and multi-country CRPs, ensuring regional consistency and coherence; As required, support the drafting of single and multi-country CRPs; Upon publication, support internal and external awareness raising, including the dissemination and use of CRPs at country and regional level with donors and other key partners

6.12 JPO – Capacity Development & Global Engagement Officer – Geneva, Switzerland

Support the MSD Team's capacity building efforts in the development and delivery of capacity development activities, targeting both internal (to IOM staff in Regional and Country Offices, in coordination with other Units and Divisions) and external (local and national governments, donors, and other stakeholders) partners, including preparing training agendas and training materials for the workshops, seminars, presentations, consultations, liaising and coordination with IOM and other partners to plan, coordinate and deliver activities; Support the development and consolidation of Migration and Sustainable Development capacity building tools to streamline the MSD offering of support to IOM staff, governments, UN partners, donors, stakeholders, and other partners; Support the dissemination, socialization, promotion and use of MSD capacity building tools, guidance and materials, both internally and externally, including support to the Regional and Country Offices in planning and organizing training activities, of various formats; Support the preparation, delivery, and sustainability of UN Network on Migration tools and guidance, in line with MSD's role as co-lead of the global workstream "Supporting Member States and the UN in implementing the GCM" articulated in the UN Network on Migration Global workplan 2022-2024; Support MSD Team in planning and organizing different events and activities to showcase IOM's approaches, work and results on achieving 2030 Agenda, implementation of the GCM objectives as well as contributions to other global and regional dialogues and forums on migration and sustainable development issues. This will include dissemination of key messages, supporting the preparation of background notes, position papers, policy briefs and other inputs; Support the MSD team efforts to liaise, coordinate and advocate with Member States, relevant stakeholders (including UN agencies, funds and programs, NGOs) and different global and regional coordination bodies for participation in regional and global dialogues (HLPF, GFMD, RCPs, GCM Regional Reviews, IMRF, global outreach aspects of PCAPs), incl. identifying priority topics, forms of participation, engagement and coordination with colleagues from Country and Regional Offices and HQ; Support MSD to integrate development approaches into IOM's humanitarian and transitional operations especially in the context of the SG's Action Agenda on Internal Displacement; Support the coordination of the activities of the MSD-led/co-led internal and external working groups, including coordinating and scheduling WG meetings, liaising with WG co-leads and members, preparing related meeting agendas, briefs, notes, agendas, talking points; this includes dedicated support for fulfilling MSD's responsibility as co-lead of UN Network on Migration global workstream "Supporting Member States and the UN in implementing the GCM"; Contribute to facilitating effective exchanges with IOM Divisions and offices as well as with the external partners; collecting and feeding country-level results and activities into global communication outputs and products of key migration dialogues and partners, such as the HLPF, GFMD, UNNM Migration Network Hub and others; Contribute to the development of the MSD policy and communication products, advocacy and awareness raising actions (including carrying out desk reviews and research exercises and preparation of working and public information materials).

6.13 JPO – International Migration Law Specialist – Geneva, Switzerland

Provide technical support and guidance to Headquarters and IOM Country Offices in the area of International Migration Law (IML) in coordination with other members of the Unit; Liaise and collaborate on migration law issues with relevant experts in the United Nations system and with other international and regional organizations, as well as protection mechanisms; In coordination with other international migration law specialists of the Unit review national legislation on migration-related matters and provide guidance to the governments on how to develop their migration legislation and/or improve compliance with international law; In coordination with other international migration law specialists of the Unit and other relevant colleagues, review migration-related policies and provide guidance to the governments on how to ensure compliance with international standards; Review and comment on research reports, articles, presentations, policy documents prepared by governments, international organizations, NGOs and members of academia; Coordinate support to the IOM's Regional and Country Offices in the planning, implementation and finalization of projects with IML components. In coordination with other experts from the Unit, provide guidance on human rights-based approach to migration programming; Develop and manage IML projects.

6.14 JPO – Programme Officer (Legal Identity) – Geneva, Switzerland

In coordination with the Identity Management and Biometrics Officer, liaise with the UNLIA TF, including attending virtual meetings, coordinating activities for and with the TF's annual workplan, etc; Liaise internally with different departments and RTS to promote LI; Seek national and regional opportunities and partnerships for LI projects and capacity building; Act as LIU Focal Point for various LI projects: NAUSS,