About UNAIDS

Serving Countries and Communities to End Inequalities and AIDS

We, the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS, lead the global effort to end AIDS as a public health threat by 2030. By placing the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) related to reduction of inequalities at the heart of our work, we lead the global response to AIDS by: (i) maximizing equitable and equal access to HIV services, (ii) breaking down barriers to achieving HIV outcomes, and (iii) integrating efficient HIV responses into wider health and protection systems.

We are committed to creating an equal, safe and empowering workplace culture where all people in all their diversity thrive. We live our values of Commitment to the AIDS Response, Integrity and Respect for Diversity. You can access the full UNAIDS Competency Framework here.

Organizational context

The UNAIDS Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific provides leadership and coordinates support for an expanded UN system response to ending the AIDS epidemic at regional and country level. It steers, promotes, and supports regional and national partners and the UN system towards ending AIDS as a public health threat by 2030. Using an equity and equality lens as part of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), the UNAIDS Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific promotes effective use of strategic information of the epidemic trends and the status of its response and provides technical leadership on people-centered HIV prevention and response in the region focused on key populations and locations most at risk.

Supervision

Name of Supervisor:

Title of Supervisor: UNAIDS Regional Director

Content and methodology of supervision:

As part of the UNAIDS JPO programme overall framework, the JPO will benefit from the following supervision modalities:

- Structured guidance provided by the supervisor, especially in the beginning of the assignment, with the purpose of gradually increasing the responsibilities of the JPO.
- Establishment of a work plan, with clear key results (Performance Evaluation Reports).
- Effective supervision through knowledge sharing and performance/development feedback throughout the assignment.
- Easy access to the supervisor.
- Mentoring and supervision modality will be tailored to the needs and professional interest of JPO.
- Coaching on building confidence and professionalization in the UN system and international working arena while learning and respecting local culture and systems.
- Participation in Unit/Team/Office meetings to ensure integration and operational effectiveness.
- Guidance and advice in relation to learning and training opportunities within the field of expertise.
- Regular calls organized by the Human Resources Department (individually and/or as a group) to establish a community of practice and provide networking opportunities for JPOs. Specific emphasis is set on mentoring and supporting first-year JPOs.

1. Key responsibilities

Under the direct supervision of the UNAIDS Regional Director (RD) for Regional Support Team, Asia and the Pacific, and subject to the changing working environment and partnership with government, the incumbent will:

- Assist the RST and the UNAIDS Country Offices (UCO) team in the region in convening, coordinating, and facilitating the two Joint UN Team on AIDS (JUNTA / Joint Team).
- Assist the RD, the UCO teams and the two Joint Teams (JUNTAs) in developing and implementing a needs-based, country-tailored Joint UN Plan on AIDS, in support to the and the SDG commitments, strategies and plans, in accordance with the priorities of the United Nations Sustainable Development Cooperation Framework (UNSDCF).
- Support the RD/ UCOs and the two Joint Teams in their engagement in the development, implementation and reporting on UNSDCF; assist in making sure that country priorities and needs pertinent to ending the AIDS epidemic are fully integrated in the UNSDCF processes.
- Assist efforts of the UCO teams in the region to foster collaboration and inclusive partnerships with key stakeholders at the national and provincial levels (Government Ministries, AIDS Control Programmes, communities and other civil society organisations, development partners, private sector and others) to advance the rights and ensure equitable access to prevention, treatment and other essential services, with a particular attention to key populations such as people living with HIV, people who inject drugs, men who have sex with men, sex workers, transgender people, prisoners, migrant workers and others, women including intimate partners of men who engage in high risk behaviour, young key populations, as determined by the country context and up-to-date evidence.

- Support the RD and UCO teams in the region in the development of a good knowledge base on legal, human rights and gender-related issues in relation to key populations. Liaise with appropriate departments in Government, civil society organizations and communities for collecting and sharing a broad range of strategic information that are relevant for key populations in the region.
- Assist the RD in ensuring that civil society organizations and communities have space to engage in decision-making processes, participate fully in key partnerships and have access to financial and material resources made available by the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, TB, and Malaria (GFATM) and other funding agencies.
