

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Junior Professional Officer (JPO)

Associate Programme Management Officer (RAF) P2

Organizational Unit:

MS/RAF

Duty Station:

Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

Responsibilities and Supervision:

Under the overall guidance of the Director of Regional Office for Africa, the incumbent will perform the following duties:

Position Specific Responsibilities:

- (a) Support Members in the Digital Transformation of their NMHSs
- (b) Support Members in the implementation of Early Warning for All Action plan for Africa (2023-2027)
- (c) Support needs assessment for weather, water, and climate services value chain in RA1.
- (d) Support WMO key initiatives including Regional Reforms.
- (e) Support RA1 technical activities and conferences
- (f) Carry out other relevant duties as required

Qualifications:

Education: A University degree in Meteorology, Atmospheric Sciences, Project Management, or related earth sciences. Having a PhD would be an added advantage

Experience: At least three years of progressively responsible experience in operational Meteorology, Research and Project Management. Good knowledge/experience in weather, water, and climate services delivery. Solid record in project development and management. High sense of integrity, responsibility, and maturity of judgment; ability to work independently; good level of initiative and creativity; demonstrated ability to plan, organize and manage multiple workloads; ability to draft reports, and position papers clearly and succinctly

Language: Excellent knowledge of English (both oral and written). Knowledge of other official languages of the Organization would be an advantage.

(Note: The official languages of the Organization are Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish.)

Learning Elements:

On completion of the assignment, the JPO will have:

- Generated a Deep understanding of weather, water, and climate services delivery in Africa
- Good understanding of Early warnings Systems in Africa
- Good understanding of Africa working environment and inter-agencies relationship
- Developed and maintained relations with various stakeholders and developed networks with considerable insight into weather, climate, hydrology practices within the UN system and other African bodies.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Junior Professional Officer (JPO) Associate Project Management Officer P2

Organizational Unit:

MS/RAF

Duty Station:

Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

Responsibilities and Supervision:

Under the overall guidance of the Director of Regional Office for Africa, the incumbent will perform the following duties:

Position Specific Responsibilities:

- (g) Initiate and design project in support of RA1 Priorities
- (h) Support development of project proposals in response to Members needs in RA1
- (i) Support development of projects related to the implementation of the UN Early Warning for All Action plan for Africa
- (j) Support the compilation of best practices in the implementation of projects related to EW4ALL for sharing knowledge and experience in RA1.
- (k) Support Members in project design that follows donor's requirement such as SOFF Fund, GCF etc.
- (l) Support the development of projects to enhance service delivery in support of compliance to EW4ALL initiative specifically for the 13 first batch of countries.
- (m) Monitor and evaluate the progress of project implementation in support of EW4ALL in RA1.
- (n) Carry out other relevant duties as required

Qualifications:

Education: A University degree in Meteorology or related sciences or project management. A PhD would be an advantage

Experience: At least three years of progressively responsible experience. Good knowledge/experience in weather, water, and climate services delivery. Solid record in project development and management. High sense of integrity, responsibility, and maturity of judgment; ability to work autonomously; good level of initiative and creativity; demonstrated ability to plan, organize and manage multiple workloads; ability to draft reports, and position papers clearly and succinctly

Language: Excellent knowledge of English (both oral and written). Knowledge of other official languages of the Organization would be an advantage.

(Note: The official languages of the Organization are Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish.)

Learning Elements:

On completion of the assignment, the JPO will have:

- Deep understanding of weather, water, and climate services delivery in Africa
- Good understanding of managing projects related to weather and climate
- Good understanding of Africa working environment and inter-agencies relationship
- Carry out the main analyse processes and understand the challenges of the function area in a multicultural environment of an international specialized UN Organization.
- Demonstrate strong oral and written communication skills
- Develop and maintain relations with various stakeholders and develop networks with considerable insight into weather, climate, water etc practices within the UN system and other African bodies.