

1.15 JPO - Resource Mobilization and Donor Liaison Officer – Freetown, Sierra Leone

Support IOM Sierra Leone Country Office, in coordination with Regional Thematic Specialists, on emerging national and regional trends, donor priorities and resource mobilization for the development and implementation of different migration management projects and programs, in line with objectives of the GCM given that Sierra Leone is a Championship country; Assist in the development of project concept notes and proposals on different migration thematic areas, in line with government priorities and needs, and IOM Strategic vision, as well as the UN Sustainable Development Cooperation Framework (UNSDCF); Draft information and guidance materials, in coordination relevant Regional Thematic Specialists and other relevant divisions; Develop strong working relationships with relevant government counterparts and participate in external management related engagements to enhance awareness of IOM's capacities in the migration governance field and pursue increased cooperation with key stakeholders such as relevant UN agencies, international organizations, NGOs, academia, and the private sector; Keep abreast of and support the analysis and provide advice to Government of Sierra Leone on developments related to migration governance; Undertake duty travel to perform field-based migration governance-related project assessments and trainings, provide expertise and assist with project development, implementation, monitoring and evaluation tasks, as required.