

4.10 JPO – Programme Support Officer (LMI) – Ankara, Turkey

Provide support in developing, maintaining, and enhancing IOM's work and collaboration on labour integration, labour migration, and development, with representatives of relevant governments, public authorities, and donors in the country; Support the collection and analysis of data relating to labour migration pathways, the labour market in Türkiye, national economic development and integration of migrants and refugees into the labour market; Liaise with academic stakeholders on research, data and partnerships relevant to the LMI portfolio; Identify emerging issues relevant to the thematic area, follow thematic developments in the country and contribute to the development of thematic policy and reports in collaboration with other colleagues in the mission; Participate in the monitoring and reporting on any incidents, events, or updates about important issues for the LMI portfolio in the country; Support the collection, analysis and sharing of data and information with relevant government and donor stakeholders.